The specth of Hon. James G. Blaine at the Reput can Mass Meeting it Sebago Lake, yesterday, the full text of which will be found upon our first page this morning, is a most masterly presentation of the polical questions now before the For weeks the opposition press have been enpressing their not altogether unnatural far of Mr. Blaine's active participation in the pending campaign, by a eference to the probable contents of his opening speech and now that they have the full text before them their anxiety will be increased ten fold. It is a document [that will appeal to the sober. serse of the people. Calm. dignified and courteous, entirely free from any taint of demagogism, it deals with questions of vital importance with that clearness, simplicity and force so eminenteristic of all Mr. Blaine's utterces. The speech is divided under five heads—the tariff, the labor question, the fishery quest on our relations with Mexico and the third party prohibitionists: The cariff naturally comes first in order as pro-tection to Home labor and home industry one of the undamental principles of the Republican party. Mr. Blaine by an unasswerably array of facts and figures under the fastering care of a protective tariff, which has been consistently sustained by the Republicans against the bitter opposition of the Democratic party. The effect of this policy upon the welfare of the people of Maine is well illustrated by their bank accounts. In 1861, after th country had enjoyed all the blessings of to nominate a member of Congress. Investigation our record is brighter than in years past. The works of our enemies only praise us.

It has been worth our defeat to bring the Democratic party into promisence. That party and its leaders did not appreciate this country. Republicans should be active in the party and its leaders did not appreciate this country or the trust imposed in the Republican party. They came into power only by a slender majority, but without the least ripple of disturbance or accitement, and quietly and dignifiedly, the Republican party walked out. Everybody acquiesced and there was a general disposition to give the new men a trial. The great promises of the opposition never matured until the election of President. Clevaland, and during the past eighteen months there has been an accellent opportunity to see how well these promises have months there has been an excellent oppor-tunity to see how well these promises have been met. So has December, when they were to make the r first call for appropriations, the Republicans in the Senate were ready for the dawn of recform and the cleaning of the Augenn Stables. They were ready also to stand by the Adm listration in any efforts which might be made to decontulize. The speaker had been a member of the Senate Committee on Appropriations and he referred in detail to the appearance of Secretary Bayard before that committee to ask for more money for the carrying on of our foreign service than had over been used before. The Secretary when asked why more was needed, told the committee that it was, a great department and the people did not appropriately service than had over been used before. Here Commissioner Sparks before assuming control said that more then were employed than were really needed but when he go. in there he wanted more, and said it was a greater office than he supposed and so it went on through the different Bureaus and the Coramittee on Appropriations while not appropriating the vast sum asked for but only that which the officials said they could not do without found their estimates forty-five millions more than in the preeding year of a Republican administration.

The Republican party places a duty on our imports not to collect a revenue but to protect our American laborer that he may be a better man and divelunder better conditions than the European. This tariff

IMPROVED 1886. Wisket Oven Door with Fedal Attachment and Perfect Ventilation Secured with Fresh Air from Ontside,

The Pedal is so arranged that the oven door can be thrown open with a slight touch of the foot, saving the use of hand or holder (as the door knobs are always hot). The Wicket Door is made to drop, and forms a shelf (as seen in the above cut). This wicket Door will be found useful in the process of baking or roasting to open and see how the work is being done without derivent to the article being cooked, and in roasting, basing can be done without cooling the oven to any perceptible degree. The vendantion at the top of the oven door, in connection with the oven ventilation at the top of the oven door, in connection with the oven ventilation at the top of side of oven, as appried to our Royal Clarion, makes a completely ventilated oven, and for practical use the most perfect baking oven known to man. This production of 1886, with our many improvements, make the Royal Clarion Ranges the most desirable ever put upon the market. Manufactured and for Sale by
